PROJECT OVERVIEW

Not just a website. A trust-building asset.

Your business needs two things working together: a front door that earns trust and generates enquiries, and a clear, fast path for visitors to reach you.

> "Every serious business runs on how it presents itself and how it operates. This proposal is built to deliver exactly what IQ Energies needs — nothing more, nothing less."

The Website

01

HOW WE WORK

Our Process

1 Discovery Call
We understand your business, your customers, and what success looks like for this project.

2 Proposal & Agreement
This proposal is finalized, scope confirmed, and the service agreement signed.

3 Onboarding & Assets
You share business details, brand assets, and content through a simple guided checklist.

4 Design
We design a custom look and structure built specifically around your business — never a template.

5 Development
The approved design is built into a fast, fully functional website.

6 Review & Revisions
You review the live build and request refinements within your included revision rounds.

7 Launch
Final testing, deployment, and your project goes live.

8 Ongoing Support
A support window follows launch to handle any immediate issues.

KEY TERMS

Working Together

Revisions

Your package includes multiple revision rounds. Changes beyond included rounds or outside agreed scope are quoted separately before work begins.

Ownership

Upon full payment, all deliverables created for this project transfer to you. ASSANJ may showcase the completed work in its portfolio unless agreed otherwise.

Timeline

Delivery begins counting from the date all required assets are received in full. Delays in providing assets proportionally extend the timeline.

Support

A support window is included following final delivery to resolve any launch-related issues. Full terms are detailed in the accompanying Service Agreement.

LET'S BUILD IT

Ready when you are, Sanjay.

This proposal is designed to move fast once you're ready — share your advance and brand assets, and discovery begins the same week.
